Lesson 10 Exercise 1

In these exercises, first mark the X-Words and Main Verbs. Is have, has, had an X-Word or a verb?

Example: (verb)
　　　　　　　　　　VXS
　　　　　　Alexa has a new puppy.

　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　VXO
X-Word　　verb　　We only have enough time to go to one more store.

　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　X　dtn
X-Word　　verb　　They have left for vacation.

　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　VXS
X-Word　　verb　　Her child has a bad cold.

　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　VXS
X-Word　　verb　　The month of February has 29 days in leap year.

　　　　　　　　　　　　　　X　dtn
X-Word　　verb　　She has worked at Kohl's for 12 years.

　　　　　　　　　　　　　　X　mw　dtn
X-Word　　verb　　Suzy had already eaten when Tim asked her out to dinner.

　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　　X　dtn
X-Word　　verb　　The population of the United States has grown.

　　　　　　　　　　　　　X　　　　dtn
X-Word　　verb　　I have never been to South America.

　　　　　　　　　　　　　　VXS
X-Word　　verb　　Mariana has a new dress for the party.

　　　　　　　　　　　　　　X　dtn
X-Word　　verb　　He had been in the hospital for three weeks.

Lesson 10 Exercise 2

Do you remember the rules for making negatives and questions in sentences with visible X-Words? Write these sentences as negatives, then as Y/N questions.

"Experiences"

1   Stan has been in college in Russia for three years.

   (NEG) Stan hasn't been in college in Russia for three years.

   (Y/N) Has Stan been in college in Russia for three years?

2   Sandra has visited Taiwan and South Korea.

   (NEG) Sandra hasn't visited Taiwan and South Korea.

   (Y/N) Has Sandra visited Taiwan and South Korea?

3   Robin had already graduated from college at 20.

   (NEG) Robin had not already graduated from college at 20.

   (Y/N) Had Robin had already graduated from college at 20?

4   Maya and Richard have met the President of the United States.

   (NEG) Maya and Richard haven't met the President of the United States.

   (Y/N) Have Maya and Richard met the President of the United States?

5   Aza had already won many piano competitions by the time he left high school.

   (NEG) Aza had not already won many piano competitions by the time he left high school.

   (Y/N) Had Aza already won many piano competitions by the time he left high school?

Lesson 10 Exercise 3

Do you remember how to make questions and negatives in questions with hidden X-Words? Mark any X-Words and verbs in these sentences. Write each sentence as a negative and a yes/no question.

How many meanings of "have" can you find? Possession? Eat? Drink? Experience?

1
                              VXO-do
   My sister and her husband have three children. (possess)

   (NEG) My sister and her husband don't have three children.

   (Y/N) Do my sister and her husband have three children?

VXD-did

2   My grandfather had a heart attack last week. (experienced)

(NEG) My grandfather didn't have a heart attack last week.

(Y/N) Did my grandfather have a heart attack last week?

VXD-did

3   Her husband had toast for breakfast yesterday. (ate)
(NEG) Her husband didn't have toast for breakfast yesterday.

(Y/N) Did her husband have toast for breakfast yesterday?

VXS-does

4   He has coffee every morning. (drinks)
(NEG) He doesn't have coffee every morning.

(Y/N) Does he have coffee every morning?

VXD-did

5   They had a good time at the party last night. (experienced)
(NEG) They didn't have a good time at the party last night.

(Y/N) Did they have a good time at the party last night?

Lesson 10 Exercise 4
Answer these questions. Use have in each answer. (SAMPLE ANSWERS)

What have you learned in this lesson? I've learned that "have" is a very useful verb!

What have you eaten today? I have eaten oatmeal.

Did you have breakfast? Yes, I did. Yes, I had breakfast.

What do you have in your pockets? I have a quarter in my pocket.