

Name: _____

Date: _____

QUIZLesson 14: The Main Subject*Part A:

Directions: Write T or F in the blank.

1. ____ The main subject must "agree" with the verb/X-Word
2. ____ If there is an "s" on the subject, there should be an "s" on the verb.
3. ____ The main subject is what the sentence is about.
4. ____ A sentence might have more than one main subject—connected with "and."

Directions: In these sentences, box the whole subject and put a star ☆ over the main subject. Then mark the verbs.

1. Some professors give a quiz to students in every class.
2. These students complain.
3. However, the students get better grades.
4. The quizzes are computerized.
5. Suzy got one question wrong on Quiz 1.
6. She saw that question again on Quiz 2.

Part B: In these sentences, the main subject is marked for you. Write the form of the X-Word or Verb in the blank. If there is a choice, use present time.

1. *
The professors (want) _____ to help their students succeed.
2. *
Some students (be prepared- negative) _____ for college.
3. *
They (have always be) _____ the smartest students.
4. *
These students (think) _____ that college will be easy, too.
5. *
College (be- negative) _____ easy.
6. *
Psychology 101 students now (take) _____ a quiz every day.
7. *
The quizzes (be always) _____ very short.
8. *
If you (miss) _____ a question, you will get the question again on the next quiz.
9. *
Everybody (learn) _____ that you must come to class and do the homework.
10. *
Preparing (help) _____ these students learn how to study.