

Name: _____

Date: _____

Quiz

Lesson 24: Describer clauses

Each answer is worth 5 points.

Part A: True or False?

- 1     True            A describer clause goes right after the word that it describes.
- 2     True            Describer clause words often have other jobs, too.
- 3     False            Describer clauses always describe people..

Part A: Describer clause words

There are four types of describer clause words. Write the clause word under the type(s) of thing(s) that it describes.

whose    who    whom    that    which    where

Clause words used with Describer Clauses
PEOPLE	LOCATION	THINGS	POSSESSION
who that (whose is OK)	where that	which that	*whose

Part B: Underline the describer clause and draw an arrow to the word that it describes.

1. The teacher who I remember the most taught me how to write.
2. The street where John lives is quiet and shady.
3. The man whose wife you are flirting with is a football player.
4. I want to see the movie that won the awards.

Part C: Complete these sentences with an appropriate describer CW.

1. The man who/that she will marry will probably be talented.
2. The white board in the room where we meet is very small.
3. The boy whose dog was lost put signs on every street.

Part D: Complete these sentences with your own describer clause.

Sample answers:

1. The house where my mother grew up was built in 1950.
2. The teacher who is the most enthusiastic likes teaching grammar.
3. Let's meet in the park that has the big waterfall in it.