Lesson 13 Exercise 1

Directions: Mark the verbs and X-Words. Underline have to and have got to. Put a box around the subjects.

                X   Vb

Example: I don't have to go to school today.

Obligations

             Vb   VXO

1 You have to have more fun. You worry too much.

             Vb   X Vb

2 She has to get a job so that she can pay her rent.

             Vb   VXO

3 I' ve got to go to the doctor because I have a fever.

    X   Vb

4 Do we have to take a quiz today?

      X   Vb   VXS

5 She will have to buy new clothes for her son if he k eps growing.

              Vb   VXO

6 Yesterday, I had to go to Immigration because I have a problem with my visa.

           ----Vb-----

7 Julio had to take care of his sick father last week.

    X mw   Vb

8 We don't have to be on time today.

    X   Vb

9 Did you have to pay sales tax on that coat?

          Vb   X mw Vb

10 You have to understand the 5 uses of X-Words, or you won't pass.

Lesson 13 Exercise 2 True or false

1	F	Have to means "can"
2	T	Have to has a future tense.
3	F	Must has a future tense.
4	T	Have to has a past tense.
5	F	Must has a past tense.
6	F	"You must not smoke in this building," means that smoking in this building is not an obligation.

Lesson 13 Exercise 3 Write three things that you have to do tomorrow.

1 _____

2 _____

3 _____

Lesson 13 Exercise 4 Write three things that you had to do yesterday.

1 _____

2 _____

3 _____