

Name: _____

Date: _____

QUIZ ANSWERS

Lesson 14: The Main Subject

Part A:

Directions: Write T or F in the blank.

1. T The main subject must "agree" with the verb/X-Word
2. F If there is an "s" on the subject, there should be an "s" on the verb.
3. T The main subject is what the sentence is about.
4. T A sentence might have more than one main subject—connected with "and."

Directions: In these sentences, box the whole subject and put a star * over the main subject. Then mark the verbs.

1. ^{*} Some professors ^{VxO} give a quiz to students in every class.

2. ^{*} These students ^{VxO} complain.

3. However, ^{*} the students ^{VxO} get better grades.

4. ^{*} Each quiz ^X is computerized and personalized.

5. ^{} Suzy and Jin ^{} ^{VxD} both got one question wrong on Quiz 1.

6. ^{*} They ^{VxD} saw those questions again on Quiz 2.

Part B: In these sentences, the main subject is marked for you. Write the form of the X-Word or Verb in the blank. If there is a choice, use present time.

1. The professors (want) want to help their students succeed.
*
2. Some students (be- negative) are not prepared for college.
*
3. They (have always be) have always been the smartest students.
*
4. These students (think) think that college will be easy, too.
*
5. College (be- negative) is not easy.
*
6. Psychology 101 students now (take) take a quiz every day.
*
7. The quizzes (be always) are always very short.
*
8. If you (miss) miss a question, you will get the question again on the next quiz.
*
9. Everybody (learn) learns that you must come to class and do the work.
*
10. Preparing (help) helps these students learn how to study.